

The Leprehaun

Words by Dr Patrick Joyce

For Geoffrey Spratt
(S.S.A. and piano)

Irish folksong
arr. Havelock Nelson

Vivace

SOP. I p

In a

4

SOP. II p

ALTO p

sha - dy nook one moon-light night, a le - pre - haun I

In a nook one moon-light night, a le - pre - haun I

In a nook one moon-light night, a le - pre - haun I

7

spied; ——— with scar - let cap and coat of green, a spied; ——— and coat of green, a

spied; ——— and coat of green, a ©Cumann Náisiúnta na gCór, 1986.

10

mp

cruis - keen by his side ——— 'Twas tick tack tick, his cruis - keen by his side ——— mp tick tack tick cruis - keen by — his side ——— mp tick tack tick

13

ham - mer went up - on a wee - ny shoe and ——— I tick tack tick up - on a wee - ny shoe and ——— I tick tack tick up - on a wee - ny shoe and ——— I

mp

Red.....*

16

laughed but the fair - y was laugh - ing laughed to think of a purse of gold; but the fair - y was laugh - ing laughed to think of a purse of gold; but the fair - y was laugh - ing

p

19

too! _____ pp With too! _____ p With too! _____ pp With

p pp

22

tip - toe step _____ quite soft - ly I drew tip - toe step and beat - ing heart quite soft - ly I drew tip toe step _____ quite soft - ly I drew

25

nigh _____ mp there was mis - chief in his mer - ry face, a nigh _____ mp there was mis - chief in his mer - ry face, a nigh _____ mp there was mis - chief in his face, a mp