

for Paul Walsh and the People's College choir

Dedicated to Sheila Conroy

There is a spot mid barren hills

Text: Emily Brontë (1818 - 1848)

John Buckley
(1998)

Andante ♩ = 80 mf

Soprano
There is a spot mid bar-ren hills, mid bar-ren hills

Alto
There is a spot mid bar-ren

Tenor

Bass

5
Where win-ter howls and dri-ving rain, hills Where win-ter howls and dri-ving rain, and dri-ving rain,
But if the drea-ry

8
tem-pest chills There is a light that warms a-gain.
mf
But if the drea-ry tem-pest chills There is a light that warms a - gain, that warms a -

©John Buckley Publications