

Vestiges

$\text{♩} = 108$

The image shows a sample page from a music manuscript book. It features three horizontal staves. The top two staves are empty, each containing five horizontal lines. The bottom staff contains musical notation, specifically a series of vertical stems without note heads, suggesting a rhythmic exercise or a placeholder for notes. A large, light gray watermark with the text "Sample page only" is oriented diagonally across the entire page, from the bottom left towards the top right.
