

Nurturing the composition & performance of new Irish music

CMC presents
Open Evening for Performers

“A Living Library”

Wednesday 3 November 2010 6pm – 7pm
In the library of CMC, 19 Fishamble St., Dublin 8

Are you interested in performing the music of our time by Irish Composers?

Would you like to know how to access these works?

CMC promotes and nurtures the composition and performance of Irish contemporary music at home and abroad. Our library contains exciting works spanning over one hundred years of composition in Ireland. In 2011, CMC aims to bring its library alive, with repeat performances of these works. If you would like to know more on how you can share in this living library of music, CMC's Open Evening for performers is an essential date for your diary. This is also a unique opportunity for you to gain an insight into how CMC can assist you with repertoire, concert programming and making connections with the New Music sector in Ireland. The evening will include a number of short informal information sessions from the following:

- CMC Library Assistant: Tricia Lyons - on how to source scores suitable to your performance needs.
- CMC Promotion Manager: Karen Hennessy: about CMC events and performance opportunities at home and abroad. Karen will also talk about working with Irish composers.
- Irish pianist Thérèse Fahy outlining how CMC's catalogue and resources have helped her build an exciting concert programme of modern Irish music.
- Executive Director of the Association of Irish Composers: Dr. John McLachlan will present details on the AIC's "freedom of the composer" project.
