

Artists & Creatives Collaborative Practice Award 2017

This 2017 Creative Ireland South Dublin initiative seeks to support an artist or creative in any discipline, or working across disciplines in their collaborative practice. The successful proposal will have both a professional development element and a community collaborative element to it. It will engage with one of the cultural venues or organisations in the county and may have access to mentoring opportunities by these venues and organisations. The amount of the award is €15,000.

This award is made possible under Pillar Two of the Creative Ireland Programme for 2017 - Enabling Creativity in Every Community.
